

The suggestion contained in petition RM-10620 to further simplify and dilute the amateur radio licensing process seems so obviously without merit that it's amazing anyone would suggest it. To see the result of reduced licensing requirements, just look at the current state of the Citizen's Band! If you value the high caliber of the amateur radio service, please do NOT further water down the licensing requirements for any of the amateur radio licenses. We need to keep the standards high!